DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restriction

- I. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 14-17 and 21, drawn to a first computer program embodied on a computer readable medium which adapts a client general purpose computer for determining and transmitting optical lens sizing and prescription data comprising a code segment for retrieving and deriving a stored image of a represented optical lens object, a code segment for deriving a starting radian of the optical lens object, a code segment for centering a retrieved stored image, a code segment for deriving the radial shape of the optical lens object and deriving the size of the derived radial shape of the optical lens object; a code segment for smoothing the derived radial shape, a code segment for identifying and retrieving patient related information from scanned image, and a code segment for transmitting the derived optical lens object radial shape, size, center, and patent related information from a client central processing unit to a server central processing unit, classified in class 434, subclass 262.
 - II. Claim 20, drawn to a second computer program embodied on a computer readable medium which adapts a server general purpose computer to communicate with a client general purpose computer in response to the client computer's transmission of optical lens sizing and prescription data, classified in class 351, subclass 205.

2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because claim 14 does not recite the details of the claim 21 and the limitations recited in the invention I has not been recited in the other inventions II and vice versa. The subcombination has separate utility such as laparoscopic surgical medical devices.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

6. A telephone call was made to Mr. Mark G. Kachigian, Registration No. 32,840 on 01/08/2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(l).

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Examiner Sang Nguyen whose telephone number is (703) 308-6426.
